

Fundraising ideas for:

Children Small does not necessarily mean less. If your children are interested in raising funds for CF, nurture their efforts. And if they're struggling to come up with an idea, here are a few to encourage them...	Party! Hold a party and charge your guests a gold coin donation for entry. If you would like to be extra creative, think of a theme, and encourage everyone to dress up! In-side-out day. Wear your clothes in-side-out for a whole day. Get your family, friends and teachers to donate money if you actually go through with it. Crazy Hair.. Ask family, friends and teachers to sponsor you to colour your hair a crazy colour and wear it to school. Street-side stall. Sell something really creative from your front yard to people who walk or drive by. This can be anything from something you make/invent, to lemonade or watermelon. (Make sure you have parental supervision.) Raffle...Sell raffle tickets to family, friends and teachers. Tell them it's for a good cause and have something crazy for the prize. Odd jobs..Do odd jobs for extra cash. With the money you earn, you can donate some to CFQ and save the rest!
Workplace Workplaces are becoming more and more involved in fundraising – fundraising allows employees to release some creative energy, to socialize with each other and to have fun! As a workplace, you and your colleagues have the ability to raise money for CF. Here are a few ideas to get you started...	Morning tea..hold a morning tea, with all proceeds to go to CF. This is a great way to bring workmates together in a relaxed atmosphere. True Colours Day..encourage your workmates to 'show their true colours' by wearing their favourite sporting team's jersey or colours to work. All participants make a donation and get to wear casual clothes to work. 'Show who's your tribe and wear it with pride'. Dress down day..choose a day for everyone to dress down. Those who dress down donate $2 and those who don't, donate $4. Fine jar..anyone who does not comply with office protocol (Eg swears in the office or whose mobile rings during a meeting) pays a fine and all proceeds go to CFQ. You'd be surprised how these will add up!

Household/ Family You and your family could alternatively fundraise together.	Fine jar.. to introduce new rules into your home – and it ensures both parents and kids comply – introduce a fine jar. Introduce some rules and who ever breaks them pays up. Collecting cans.. the family could collect all the household cans and sell them to the local recycling plant. Donations instead of presents..the next time you have a birthday, graduation or Christening party, why not ask your party guests for donations instead of presents. Morning tea with Nana..kids can organise the extended family to get together and have morning tea with Nana (or Pop). Everyone brings a plate and makes a donation. It's a great way to get the family together and raise funds for CF
Street Get your street involved in some fundraising activities, and meet the neighbours you don't know yet. It's a good excuse for a party and raises fund for CF at the same time	Football night..get your fellow footy enthusiasts together and hold a footy night. Round up the street and all guests make a donation. Street party..get the whole street excited about a party. Decide where to have the party, every one bring a plate, and collect donations from everyone who shows up. Cocktail party..you and your neighbours can coordinate a cocktail party, and raise funds for CF. Choose a venue and the cocktails you wish to enjoy. Simply write out the list of people who will attend, assign them a bottle to bring and enjoy the evening. Charge each guest a covercharge to make your donation. Sausage sizzle..hold a sausage sizzle the whole street can attend. Charge everyone a dollar a snag, and donate your profits. It's a great Aussie tradition, and a lot of fun. Trivia night..put your neighbours to the test! Everyone pays $5 to play a triva game. All money goes to CF and the winner gets glory!
School Get your school involved in fundraising, by choosing a fun activity that all students can get enthusiastic about. Here are some ideas to get you started	Blue light disco/ concert..the next time your school holds a disco or concert, suggest that all attendees make a gold coin donation for entry. All the proceeds can go to CF. Battle of the bands..if your school is very musical, you may be able to coordinate a battle of the bands. All bands compete for the 'XXXXX' title and prize, and those who attend make a donation at the door. Get people from the community or your teachers to judge.

Social/ Sporting group The team that wins together can donate together!	Canteen proceeds..as a sports club donate the proceeds from one day's business at the canteen to CF. Raffle..as a club why not sell raffle tickets at your next event or awards ceremony. Raffle something you know people will want and donate the proceeds to CF. Cent sale/ auction..at the next event your club holds, why not hold a cent sale or auction. Rally up donations of prizes people will want and auction them off at your event.
