

BREAKING BARRIERS FOR CYSTIC FIBROSIS

TODAY'S DEDICATION

DAY 12: TUESDAY 12th SEPTEMBER 2023

Ele

Elena (Ele) Williams is a higher education consultant and PhD candidate at The Australian National University who has lived with CF since birth.

Having lived and worked between Australia and Indonesia since 2005, Ele is passionate about encouraging young people with CF to continue on to post-secondary study into university and TAFE and working with CFs and their families to demystify the processes of living, working, and studying overseas with CF!

Ele is passionate about increasing educational opportunities for people living with CF from her own years studying and researching, and also from her many years working with numerous Australian universities to support students.
